Proverbs 1

- 1 The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel:
- 2 To know wisdom and instruction,
To perceive the words of understanding,
- 3 To receive the instruction of wisdom,
Justice, judgment, and equity;
- 4 To give prudence to the simple,
To the young man knowledge and discretion—

Proverbs 1

- 5 A wise man will hear and increase learning, And a man of understanding will attain wise counsel,
- 6 To understand a proverb and an enigma,
The words of the wise and their riddles.
- 7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge,
But fools despise wisdom and instruction.
- 8 My son, hear the instruction of your father,
And do not forsake the law of your mother;
- 9 For they will be a graceful ornament on your head,
And chains about your neck.

Proverbs 1

- 20 Wisdom calls aloud outside; She raises her voice in the open squares.
- 21 She cries out in the chief concourses At the openings of the gates in the city She speaks her words:
- 22 “ How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity? For scorners delight in their scorning, And fools hate knowledge.
- 23 Turn at my rebuke; Surely I will pour out my spirit on you; I will make my words known to you.
- 24 Because I have called and you refused,
I have stretched out my hand and no one regarded,

Proverbs 1

- 25 Because you disdained all my counsel,
And would have none of my rebuke,
- 26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your terror comes,
- 27 When your terror comes like a storm, And your destruction comes like a whirlwind, When distress and anguish come upon you.
- 28 “ Then they will call on me, but I will not answer;
They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me.
- 29 Because they hated knowledge
And did not choose the fear of the LORD,

Proverbs 1

- 30 They would have none of my counsel And despised my every rebuke.
- 31 Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way, And be filled to the full with their own fancies.
- 32 For the turning away of the simple will slay them, And the complacency of fools will destroy them;
- 33 But whoever listens to me will dwell safely, And will be secure, without fear of evil.”

- Lord, I pray that the Word, today, would find good soil in my heart.
- I reject the thoughts of offense! Where the light of Your Word exposes my mistakes, I do not take offense. I will change and turn to You, my heavenly Father.
- I reject condemnation! Your Word says, “That Jesus did not come to condemn people.” This Word does not come to condemn me, but it comes to heal me.
- I reject accusation! Satan is the accuser of brothers and sisters and this Word does not come to accuse me or abuse me. This Word exposes satan and his lies and I choose to believe and receive the TRUTH.

God says in His Word, “...blessed are my eyes for they see, and my ears for they hear; for many prophets and righteous men desired to see what I see, and did not see it, and to hear what I hear, and did not hear it. (Matthew 13:16)

Therefore I will hide Your Word in my heart that I might not sin against (or miss) the will of God.
(Psalm 119:11-12)

Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things from Your Word today. (Psalm 119:16-18)

<sup>16</sup>Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed.

The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

James 5:16 The King James Version,

Fault = sin

“a missing of the mark,” but this meaning is largely lost sight of in the NT. It is the most comprehensive term for moral obliquity. It is used of “sin” as (a) a principle or source of action, or an inward element producing acts

W.E. Vine, Merrill F. Unger and William White, Vine’s complete expository dictionary of Old and New Testament words

Fault = trespass

“a false step, a blunder” “to fall away lit., “a fall beside,” used ethically, denotes “a trespass,” a deviation, from uprightness and truth,

Repairing Broken Places

Breaking Points in our heart will expose the Breaking
Points in our relationships.

What NOW?
Navigating the Maze of Transition, Trials and Change

We have broken places in our heart.
The broken places are like the faults in the earth's crust.

From a geological point of view, a fault is a break created by stress in the earth's crust.

Your heart , mind, emotions & life (relationships) are like the earth, which has stress points that break under pressure.

Repairing Broken Places

Where the break occurs is called a fault.
When the break occurs it is called an earthquake.

There are at least three types of stress in the earth's crust. (your life, your relationships)
They are tension, compression and shearing.

Tension

What NOW?
Navigating the Maze of Transition, Trials and Change

Repairing Broken Places

Tension the force that pulls a (rock, foundation) person apart forcing opposite sides away from each other.

It is the pressure of being torn between right and wrong.

Compressions

What NOW?

Repairing Broken Places

Compression: the squeezing or crushing affects of life.

Sometimes the stress on our lives is not necessarily direct enticements to sinful behavior, but it is our response to life itself.

Shearing

Shearing: violent glances of opposite forces against each other, causing tears, and breaks

What NOW?
Navigating the Maze of Transition, Trials and Change

Many of us are not only broken because of the tension of the flesh and the compressions of life, but we have been seriously damaged due to violent encounters in life (shearing).

The natural results of shearing are that parts and pieces are torn off. There is damage, defacing, and destruction. Shearing is result of direct conflict and confrontation.
